

Complete Sentences

Subjects

The WHO or the WHAT of the sentence.

E.G. John breathed.

The dog danced.

E.G. My oldest friend on Earth might visit for a week.

Drum lessons would cost very little at that school.

Sue Mei's first ball landed out of bounds.

This trivia game about Canada is teaching me a lot.

Predicate

Tells about the subject.

E.G. His terror of spiders kept him out of the basement.

Cotton candy flavoured potato chips never really caught on.

My cousin Rango, would like to be a cartoonist.

The books on the table need to get put away.

The Rocky Mountains rose up suddenly before us.