

Leadership - What does that word mean? What does it mean to you? Who have you been "Led" by in life so far?

At the most basic level, a leader is someone who leads other. But what makes someone a leader? What is it about being a leader that some people understand and use to their advantage? What traits/strategies do leaders have/use?

Answer in paragraph format - make sure you answer all the questions.