

Thesis statements

Make a point or argument

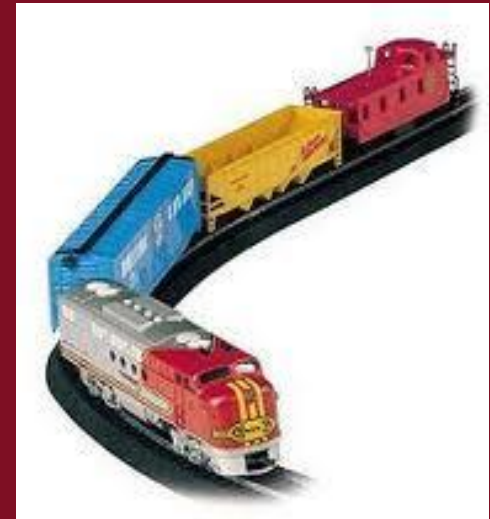

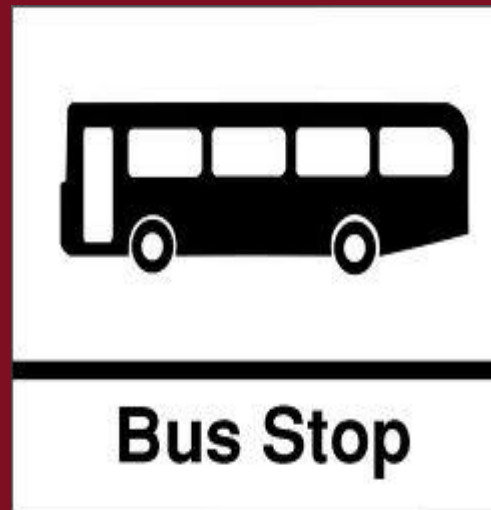

A series of horizontal stripes in various colors (yellow, green, blue, dark blue, orange, red, white, green) are located at the bottom of the slide.

The first part states the topic

eg. Kenya's culture

eg. Building a model train

eg. Public transportation

The second part of the thesis is the point being made.

eg. Kenyan culture has a rich and varied history.

eg. Building a model train takes time and patience.

eg. Public transportation can solve some of our city's most persistent and pressing problems.

Or the second part, can list your three main ideas!

Kenyan culture, has a long history, blends traditions from several other cultures, and provides a rich heritage.

Building a model train set, requires an investment in time, patience, and materials.

Public transportation, helps with traffic congestion, resource management, and the city budget.
